

Life Verse

“Audacious, Aggressive Passion for Christ”: 1 Corinthians 15 (NASB)
June 29-30, 2013: Cam Huxford, Senior Pastor

Aggressive pursuit of audacious Kingdom initiatives is just embedded in the DNA of the church.

“Therefore, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your toil is not in vain in the Lord.” 1 Corinthians 15:58

Whenever you see the word “therefore” in the Bible, you should ask yourself: what is that there for?

Paul taught that every human being will be resurrected to stand before God and give an account of their life.

I. Live With a Sense of Urgency.

- Steadfast literally means to sit down.
- Immovable means you won't negotiate on truth.

No one in Rome died because they were followers of Jesus. They died because they admitted they were followers of Jesus.

II. Give My Best Every Day. John 15:8 (ESV)

“The motivation for a Christ follower should come from within.” Dallas Willard

III. Live a Life of No Wasted Effort!

Every effort I expend to advance the purposes of God in this world, no matter how big or how small, how visible or how hidden, is never in vain.

Hebrews 13:5 (NIV)

Because in Christ nothing is wasted, NOTHING we do in the Lord is in vain.

Five for the Drive

A family conversation starter for the ride home

1. Begin to place into memory 1 Corinthians 15:58 by repeating it five times in unison: “Therefore, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord.”
2. Share a time when you felt discouraged?
3. How can the above life verse encourage and motivate you when you are discouraged?
4. How can you use this life verse to help you live with a greater sense of urgency?
5. What challenges are ahead of you this week and in light of 1 Corinthians 15:58, how should you respond to those challenges?

Holy Land and Jordan Tour

May 19 – 30, 2014

Cam and Sarah Huxford invite you on a spiritual pilgrimage to the Holy Land. You will visit the places in the Bible where Jesus lived, preached and performed miracles and where He was crucified and rose from the dead. It will be a life-changing and never-to-be-forgotten experience. Spaces are limited, so reserve your seat as soon as possible. For more information about the trip and how to book your place, pick up a flyer from The Source bookstore.

Hero Weekend

Saturday and Sunday, June 29 – 30

We are honoring active-duty military, police, fire and first-responder families this weekend. Bring your family and join us outside after any service for ice cream sundaes and information about upcoming opportunities.
