

How People Grow

“Serving - A Different Kind of Life”: Matthew 20:20-28
September 25, 28-29: Ken Philbeck, East Campus Pastor

“Whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever wants to be first must be slave of all. For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many.” Mark 10:43-45

“By this we may know that we are in Him: whoever says He abides in Him ought to walk in the same way in which He walked.” 1 John 2:5-6 (ESV)

We are never more like God than when we serve like God.

God knows that our lives are most compelling when we serve.

Jesus said to live a compellingly different kind of life where instead of focusing on yourself and what you want to get or accomplish, you focus on someone else...you put the needs of others first.

- His invitation was different. Matthew 4:18-22
- His message was different.
- Jesus' example was different. John 13:3-5, 13-17

Choosing to live a different kind of life is compelling – it's powerful and irresistible – it will capture the attention of people.

Five for the Drive

A family conversation starter for the ride home

1. How does the world define greatness?
2. How does God define greatness?
3. What kind of life does Jesus ask us to embrace?
4. Who are some people you know that exemplify this kind of different life?
5. What would happen in our community if we embraced this different “compelling” life?
