

ROAD TRIP

Dangerous Prayers!
Psalm 139:23-24: June 25, 28-29
Cam Huxford, Senior Pastor

I. The “Search Me” Prayer.

1. David reflects on the Omniscience of God...the fact that He knows everything. Psalm 139:1-6
2. David reflects on the Omnipresence of God...the fact that He is present everywhere! Psalm 139:7-12
3. David reflects on the Omnipotence of God...the fact that He can do anything! Psalm 139:13-14
4. It occurs to David that this great God has personal thoughts about him...all the time. Psalm 139:17-21

If you pray this prayer, then you'll have to address the answer...or say NO to God.

Ecclesiastes 3:1,3

II. The “Break Me” Prayer.

Great God, what repetitive patterns do You want me to build up...and what do You want me to break down?

III. The “Lead Me” Prayer.

For God's sake and your own sake...don't settle for a life led by someone as limited as you.

These are dangerous prayers...but it's more dangerous NOT to pray them, because of all the things you'll miss if you don't!

Five for the Drive

A family conversation starter for the ride home

1. When you pray, do you think your prayers reflect that you lead your life or does God? Can you share an example?
2. Describe what “search me” prayers, “break me” prayers, “lead me” prayers are like?
3. Which of the above prayers do you need to pray most?
4. What things might you miss if you don't pray the “search me”, “break me”, and “lead me” prayers?
5. How can you remind yourself to daily pray these three types of prayers?

30 Days of Prayer for the Muslim World

Saturday, June 28 – Sunday, July 27

During Ramadan, an important month of fasting and religious observance for Muslims, we encourage you to take part in 30 Days of Prayer for the Muslim World. This is an annual, international prayer focus where Christians can learn about, pray for and reach out to their Muslim neighbors. Pick up a prayer guide containing readings, factual information and prayer points for each day from the Global Circle in the lobby.

Hero Weekend

Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday, July 2, 5 – 6

Many people commit their lives to serving us in the military, in police and fire departments and in emergency medical professions. We are honoring all active-duty soldiers and first responders during Independence Day week, when we'll have special elements during our services to recognize and thank them. Pick up invitation cards from Connecting Pointe to invite your military and first responder friends.

Camp in the City
